P R E F A C E

This is the thirty-fourth (34th) year of continuous publication of the Official Atlanta City Directory, in it we present all the new streets that will be in Greater Atlanta after January 1, 1910; also the first official map of Greater Atlanta showing the new ward and city boundaries, which was made exclusively for us by W. T. Wilson, assistant city engineer, and is corrected to Dec. 1, 1909, showing every change of street name to that date.

We are pleased to say that after 6 years of agitation on our part, and the recent efforts of Councilman Steve R. Johnston, Atlanta is about to take a long step towards modernization, by having her houses numbered on the centenary plan, and all duplicate street names changed; we hope to see this action taken by council early in 1910.

We assume that everyone realizes how vitally important it is that each and every citizen should be correctly chronicled in the city directory a thing that costs them nothing but may be of immense value in case of accidents, telegrams, letters, inquiries of relatives, delivery of goods or the many unexpected conditions that arise in the course of human events, in fact a person who neglects to have correct and complete information accorded to himself places himself, his friends and all whom he has dealings with at a serious and sometimes costly disadvantage.

We desire to thank all those who have aided us, in our earnest efforts to give correct and complete information.

We have carefully selected our advertisers, and commend all of them to our readers, as being worthy of their patronage and confidence; they are representative of the most progressive business houses of Atlanta.

POPULATION 206,427

There are 78,270 names in the alphabetical department; 26,090 carry the wife's name; we also give 4,230 names of residents of adjacent towns compiled separately, making a total of 109,500 actual names recorded in this book. Multiplying the 78,270 names in the alphabetical departments by $2\frac{1}{4}$ gives 176,107 and adding to that the 26,090 wives' names, and the 4,230 residents of adjacent towns gives a grand total of 206,427 living in and around Atlanta.

By a careful calculation made from the original canvass, we estimate the population within the new city limits to be between 135,000 and 140,000, certainly not under 135,000.

Concerning Names Not in the Directory

A few remarks about those whose names are not in the Directory will be permissible.

Do not hold the compilers responsible for every omission, for the fault is not always theirs.

There are people who do not wish to have their names in the Directory and they exert themselves in every way to keep away from the name-takers.

While it is certainly no reproach upon people to have their names in the Directory, there are a number of reasons why some wish to have their names kept out of the Directory, all of which reasons are good reasons why the public should find the names in the Directory.

Included in the "Keep-out-Clan" is the super-sensitive person, suffering from false pride, who shrinks from the exhibition of name and occupation before the public. To this class belong many young ladies and women who are holding respectable positions in the business houses of the city.

Then there is the person who believes that the appearance of his name in the Directory will cause him to be assessed dreadfully by the tax-man, so he prefers to dodge the issue—and the taxes.

Then there is the man or woman who owes some one and is so fearful of the creditor finding the address that all sorts of subterfuges are resorted to in the endeavor to keep out. Sometimes a real criminal is hiding from the authorities of this or some other city and he considers the Directory man an enemy.

Really, if you are not living at home with your parents and your name is not in the Directory, it is somewhat of a reproach upon you, for if you are living at a respectable address and employed at a decent place, it is to your advantage to have the fact known. The City Directory establishes a respectability for people. It classifies them as having a regular address in the city, guarantees the correct delivery of mail and gives them something to refer to in case they need identification.

It oftentimes happens that the reason a name isn't found is because the seeker doesn't know how to spell it. Directories are arranged in exact alphabetical order, and many names of similar pronunciation have widely different spellings; as follows:

Cadle, Kadle, Keadle
Cain, Kain, Kane
Caldwell, Colwell
Calhoun, Colhoun
Camp, Campe
Carey, Cary, Karie
Carnes, Karns
Carr, Karr, Kerr, Korr
Cay, Kay
Clein, Cline, Klein, Kline
Coker, Kochoer
Lea, Leah, Lee, Leigh

Kile, Kyle
Leibman, Liebman
MacLean, McLain, McLean
MacDonald, McDonald
McGee, McGahee, McGehee, Mc-
Gaughey
Magill, McGill
McFail, McPhail
Maier, Meyer, Myer
Rhein, Ryan
Schmid, Schmidt, Smith, Smyth
Shane, Schane, Scheine

And numerous others, so the person, you are looking for may be in the book if you know how to spell their name.

The City Directory is a matter of great importance to the community, for it clearly portrays the city and its people and institutions and the growth and progress as no other work can. Every individual is interested and should be represented in it and it is a matter of vital importance that he be accurately represented.

This, the Official Atlanta City Directory, has had the advantage of a large force of trained, competent and industrious directory men, and every facility was provided and maintained for making the work a model of completeness and accuracy. We take every precaution known to our business in order to miss no one, and our great care in visiting every house, office and place of business, together with the publicity the work has and the knowledge the public has of the regularity of the work each year assures as accurate a census as is possible to attain.

$100 REWARD!

The Association of American Directory Publishers will pay $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons attempting to collect money on fraudulent directory advertisements.
